Complaint with Request for Jury Trial

The Plaintiff, NEW JERUSALEM DELIVERANCE CHURCH, hereby request a jury trial for primary issues that pertain to federal questions under the jurisdiction of this court and pendent jurisdiction over related state-court claims. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint if additional parties and claims are discovered.

Jurisdiction & Parties:

1. This complaint is based upon questions of federal law that include, but are not limited to, Deprivation of Civil Rights under Color of Law, 42 U.S.C. §1983.
2. Plaintiff NEW JERUSALEM DELIVERANCE CHURCH is a Michigan domestic nonprofit corporation with the assumed name "Life Worship and Training Center". The physical location for the religious organization is 830 Auburn Road, Pontiac, Michigan in Oakland County.
3. Plaintiff NEW JERUSALEM DELIVERANCE CHURCH owns the disputed real estate located at 830 Auburn Road in Pontiac, Oakland County, Michigan by virtue of a warranty deed conveyed on September 3, 1996 and recorded in the Oakland County Register of Deeds at Liber 20835 and Page 679. A copy of said warranty deed is attached as Exhibit A.

4. Defendant THOMAS RABETTE is a part-time marine special deputy for the Oakland County Sheriff's Office and is being sued in his official and individual capacities.
5. Defendant MICHAEL J. BOUCHARD is Sheriff of Oakland County and is being sued in his official and individual capacities.
6. Defendant OAKLAND COUNTY (Michigan) is the legal entity subject to suit for actions involving departments such as the Oakland County Sheriff's Office.
7. Defendant EVANGELICAL CHRISTIAN CREDIT UNION, hereafter referred to as ECCU, is a federally-insured, non-federal credit union that is chartered in California.

Count One: Deprivation of Civil Rights Under Color of Law

8. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1-7, inclusive, of its Complaint as though completely set forth herein.
9. On December 29, 2009, Defendant THOMAS RABETTE conducted a sheriff sale of the property belonging to Plaintiff NEW JERUSALEM DELIVERANCE CHURCH.
10. On December 29, 2009, for consideration of $2,627,063.30, Defendant THOMAS RABETTE, executed a sheriff deed for the disputed property to Evangelical Christian Credit Union. This sheriff deed was recorded in the Oakland County Register of Deeds on January 19, 2010 at Liber 41779 and Page 454. A copy of the sheriff deed is attached as Exhibit B.

11. In Michigan's Foreclosure of Mortgages by Advertisement statutes, MCL 600.3216 states, "The sale shall be at public sale, between the hour of 9 o'clock in the forenoon and 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at the place of holding the circuit court within the county in which the premises to be sold, or some part of them, are situated, and shall be made by the person appointed for that purpose in the mortgage, or by the sheriff, undersheriff, or a deputy sheriff of the county, to the highest bidder." [Emphasis added.]

12. MCL 600.3232 states that the person conducting the sheriff sale must sign the sheriff deed. Specifically, it states, "The officer or person making the sale shall forthwith execute, acknowledge, and deliver, to each purchaser a deed of the premises bid off by him; and if the lands are situated in several counties he shall make separate deeds of the lands in each county, and specify therein the precise amounts for which each parcel of land therein described was sold. And he shall endorse upon each deed the time when the same will become operative in case the premises are not redeemed according to law.

Such deed or deeds shall, as soon as practicable, and within 20 days after such sale, be deposited with the register of deeds of the county in which the land therein described is situated, and the register shall endorse thereon the time the same was received, and for the better preservation thereof, shall record the same at length in a book to be provided in his office for that purpose; and shall index the same in the regular index of deeds, and the fee for recording the same shall be included among the other costs and expenses allowed by law. In case such premises shall be redeemed, the register of deeds shall, at the time of destroying such deed, as provided in section 3244 of this chapter, write on the face of such record the word "Redeemed", stating at what date such entry is made, and signing such entry with his official signature." [Emphasis added.]

13. On the notarized sheriff deed and in the affidavit of auctioneer, Defendant THOMAS RABETTE swears and deposes that he is a deputy sheriff with the Oakland County Sheriff's Office.
14. According to his appointment of December 29, 2008 by Oakland County Sheriff, Michael J. Bouchard, Defendant THOMAS RABETTE is a not a deputy sheriff but is a special deputy sheriff in the position of PART TIME MARINE DEPUTY for the term ending December 31, 2012. This appointment of special deputy sheriff enumerates the Defendant's law enforcement authority as follows: To detect and prevent crimes and enforce Marine Unit related statutes while "on duty" as prescribed by the Lieutenant of the Unit and approved by the Sheriff. Limited powers of arrest and C.C.W. authority "to and from" and "during" work assignments while in uniform. The special deputy appointment of Defendant THOMAS RABETTE is attached as Exhibit C.
15. On December 29, 2008, as part of his appointment as special deputy, Defendant THOMAS RABETTE signed before a notary an Understanding of Authority that states, "I fully understand that as a Special Deputy Sheriff, my authority extends only to those acts which the Sheriff has authorized me to perform by this instrument." (A copy of the Understanding of Authority is attached as Exhibit C.)
16. The December 29, 2008 appointment and understanding of authority do not bear the stamp of the county clerk to reflect the filing date.
17. MCL 51.70 requires that special deputy appointments be in writing and filed with the county clerk. Specifically, the statute states, "Each sheriff may appoint 1 or more deputy sheriffs at the sheriff's pleasure, and may revoke those appointments at any time. Persons may also be deputed by a sheriff, by an instrument in writing, to do particular acts, who shall be known as special deputies and each sheriff may revoke those appointments at any time. A sheriff shall not be responsible for the acts, defaults, and misconduct in office of a deputy sheriff. The appointed deputy or deputies, other than special deputies, before entering upon the duties of office shall execute and file with the county clerk an official bond running to the people of this state in the amount of at least $2,500.00, if the county board of commissioners determines an individual bond is necessary, which bond shall be conditioned in the same manner as the bond required of the sheriff, and with sufficient sureties as the presiding judge of the circuit court for the county approves. A county by resolution of its county board of commissioners may pay premiums on the individual bond running to the people of this state in the amount of at least $2,500.00 as prescribed by the county board of commissioners. A bond required by this section shall be conditioned in the same manner as the bond required for the sheriff and have sufficient sureties.” [Emphasis added.]

18. The special deputy appointment of Defendant THOMAS RABETTE restricts the Defendant’s authority to marine law enforcement, commonly understood to be restricted to law enforcement activities on waters such as lakes, rivers, and streams.
19. By conducting sheriff sales, on land, at the county courthouse and by executing sheriff deeds, on land, at the county register of deeds, Defendant THOMAS RABETTE acted outside of his marine law enforcement authority enumerated in his special deputy appointment.
20. Because Defendant THOMAS RABETTE acted outside of his authority in conducting the sheriff sale and executing the sheriff deed, the sheriff deed is invalid and void.

21. Pursuant to MCL 600.3216, deputy sheriffs have the statutory authority to conduct sheriff sales. Hence, by concealing his true job title as special deputy, Defendant THOMAS RABETTE misrepresented that he had apparent authority to conduct sheriff sales and execute sheriff deeds.
22. By acting outside of his authority, Defendant THOMAS RABETTE executed sheriff deeds in the capacity of a civilian employee of the Oakland County Sheriff's Office.
23. By acting outside of his special deputy authority in executing a sheriff deed, Defendant THOMAS RABETTE engaged in state action that violated Plaintiff's property rights under color of law.
24. Defendant MICHAEL J. BOUCHARD, as sheriff of Oakland County, knew or should have known that he did not appoint Defendant THOMAS RABETTE the special deputy authority to conduct sheriff sales and execute sheriff deeds.
25. Defendant MICHAEL J. BOUCHARD, as sheriff of Oakland County, should have appointed, sworn, and bonded deputy sheriffs to conduct the sheriff sales and should have trained such deputies regarding the acts that constitute full compliance with Michigan's foreclosure by advertisement statutes.
26. By custom, usage, policy statement, ordinance, regulation, some other decision, or acquiescence, Defendant MICHAEL J. BOUCHARD, as sheriff of Oakland County, permitted improperly appointed special deputies/civilian employees to conduct sheriff sales in contravention of Michigan foreclosure by statute laws.
27. By custom, usage, policy statement, ordinance, regulation, some other decision, or acquiescence, Defendant MICHAEL J. BOUCHARD, as sheriff of Oakland County, permitted improperly appointed special deputies/civilian employees to fraudulently conceal the employees' true job title from the content of the sheriff deed.

28. Defendant MICHAEL J. BOUCHARD, as sheriff of Oakland County, is vicariously liable for the acts and omissions of his civilian employees/improperly appointed special deputies.
29. By custom, usage, policy statement, ordinance, regulation, contract, some other decision, or acquiescence, Defendant OAKLAND COUNTY permitted Defendant MICHAEL J. BOUCHARD to conduct sheriff sales in a manner that violated Michigan law.
30. Defendant OAKLAND COUNTY is liable for the unlawful and unauthorized acts of "special deputies" or civilian employees acting in contravention of the requirements of the foreclosure by advertisement statutes.
31. By virtue of the long-standing practice of having civilian employees/special deputies issue invalid sheriff deeds, Defendants MICHAEL J. BOUCHARD and OAKLAND COUNTY have committed slander of title and conversion in deprivation of Plaintiff's civil rights under color of law, in violation of 42 U.S.C. 1983.
32. The sheriff deed and affidavit of auctioneer were drafted by Attorney Bradley J. Fisher of Scholten & Fant, representing Defendant EVANGELICAL CHRISTIAN CREDIT UNION (ECCU).
33. By simply reading the proposed sheriff deeds drafted by the credit union's attorney, Defendants OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHAEL J. BOUCHARD, and THOMAS RABETTE knew or should have known that the proposed sheriff deed contained false and misleading statements regarding the deputy sheriff job title and apparent authority.

34. Defendants OAKLAND COUNTY and MICHAEL J. BOUCHARD had knowledge of and consented/acquiesced to or permitted Defendant THOMAS RABETTE to execute sheriff deeds that contained the fraudulent misrepresentation regarding the deputy sheriff job title and apparent authority.
35. Defendants OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHAEL J. BOUCHARD, and THOMAS RABETTE were grossly negligent in executing or permitting to be executed sheriff deeds that contained the false and misleading statements regarding the deputy sheriff job title and apparent authority, in fraudulent concealment of the fact that special deputies/civilian employees were conducting sheriff sales in contravention of the Michigan statutes.
36. Because Defendant THOMAS RABETTE is a special deputy/civilian employee rather than a deputy sheriff, then Defendants OAKLAND COUNTY and MICHAEL J. BOUCHARD are liable for Defendant THOMAS RABETTE's acts and defaults via the doctrine of respondeat superior and vicarious liability, MCL 51.70, and Monell v. Dept. of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978).
37. The sheriff deed containing the false and misleading statement that the person conducting the sheriff sale and executing the sheriff deed is a deputy sheriff became the proximate cause of Plaintiff losing title to the property.
38. Plaintiff alleges that even though the church still possess the disputed property, it has been harmed by the defective sheriff deed because it poses a cloud on the title that has the following effect that include, but are not limited to:
- a. Prejudicing sale/short sale of the property.
 - b. Putting Plaintiff at risk of eviction by Defendant ECCU.
 - c. Putting the property at risk of being assessed property taxes.

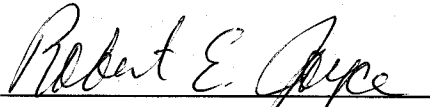

39. The Michigan foreclosure by advertisement statutes, MCL 600.3201 et seq., attempt to give property owners constitutional protection. By circumventing the foreclosure by advertisement statutes, Defendants OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHAEL J. BOUCHARD, and THOMAS RABETTE violated Plaintiff's property, due process, protection from unreasonable seizure, and equal protection rights as guaranteed by the Michigan and United States Constitutions.
40. Wherefore, Plaintiff request that this Court enters judgment and orders that the Defendants THOMAS RABETTE, MICHAEL J. BOUCHARD, and OAKLAND COUNTY:
- a. Are jointly and severally liable for actual, compensatory, special, consequential, and other damages that include costs and attorney's fees in state and other federal courts, such damages and costs totaling in excess of $2,627,063.30;
 - b. Their acts are declared unlawful;
 - c. They are enjoined from committing similar acts in the future;
 - d. They are mandated to explain the errors that arose from the void sheriff sales to credit reporting agencies; and
 - e. Whatever other relief the court deems just.

Count Two: Quiet Title

41. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1-40, inclusive, of its Complaint as though completely set forth herein.
42. Defendant EVANGELICAL CHRISTIAN CREDIT UNION (ECCU) is the grantee of the invalid sheriff sale described in Count One.

43. Counsel for Defendant ECCU, Bradley J. Fisher of Scholten Fant, prepared the proposed sheriff deed that contained the misrepresentation regarding the auctioneer's true job title and apparent authority.
44. After June 29, 2010, the expiration of the redemption period, Defendant ECCU may putative exercise ownership rights which include, but are not limited to, the following:
Renting the disputed property back to the Plaintiff, evicting the Plaintiff, or selling the property.
45. Service of this complaint constitutes notice that the person conducting the sheriff sale and executing the sheriff deed was not acting within his authority, therefore, any action by Defendant ECCU or its counsel to exercises ownership rights pursuant to its counsel's misrepresentation constitutes a knowing misrepresentation and violation of Michigan's Rules of Professional Conduct for attorneys.
46. Wherefore, based upon the defects in the sheriff deed that are herein detailed in Count One, Plaintiff requests that this Court enter judgment and orders that:
 - a. The sheriff deed be set aside.
 - b. Title quieted in the name of the Plaintiff, New Jerusalem Deliverance Church.
 - c. Defendant EVANGELICAL CHRISTIAN CREDIT UNION (ECCU) be enjoined from committing fraud by initiating an eviction action against the Plaintiff in any federal or state court.
 - d. No sale of the premises will be transacted without the Plaintiff's written consent.
 - e. Whatever other relief the Court deems just and appropriate.

Respectfully submitted on this 29th day of June 2010,
